HERE. FOR GOOD.™

Jury awards and out-of-court settlements routinely run into the hundreds of thousands or even millions of dollars. Add to this the cost of legal fees and the expense becomes staggering. An unexpected catastrophe could result in a large judgment against you. Without adequate protections, your current assets could be placed in serious jeopardy.

A personal umbrella policy could protect you against excess liability judgments for loss, injury, or even death caused by negligent acts. It is designed to provide liability protection over and above the insurance policies you currently have.

Expect the Unexpected

How well protected are you and your family from paying a large liability loss?

The following events did happen and could happen to you:

- While playing with BB guns, a boy was shot by another boy at their friend's home.
PLAINTIFF VERDICT, COMPENSATORY AWARD: $500,000

- A 12-year-old boy suffered lacerations to his lower legs and thigh when he walked by a neighbor's house and was bitten by her two dogs.
PLAINTIFF VERDICT, COMPENSATORY AWARD: $500,000
- A man improperly installed a pool diving board at his former home that later resulted in a serious injury to the home's new owner.
OUT-OF-COURT SETTLEMENT: $2,500,000
- A driver was rear-ended by an uninsured motorist, which forced the driver's car into another vehicle and caused injuries to the occupant of the front vehicle.
OUT-OF-COURT SETTLEMENT: $1,250,000

Why do I need more insurance?

You may say, "We have auto insurance and homeowner's coverage. That should be sufficient. Why would we need an umbrella policy?"

In today's society, lawsuits are occurring with alarming frequency. Moreover, the monetary awards can be staggering.

Your current insurance will protect you against a minor misfortune—but it probably would not give you the needed protection against a catastrophic loss.

How much insurance is enough?

To ensure that you're protected against the unknown, resetting liability policy limits can be as critical as re-locating invested assets.

You likely have liability coverage—auto, homeowner's and/or watercraft. In the event of an accident, these will give you protection for both bodily injury and property damage—but only up to your policy limit. Beyond that, you would be responsible for paying the excess amount for which you are liable. That excess amount could be several million dollars!

Added Features

Besides providing increased liability limits, a personal umbrella policy gives you these additional benefits:

- You are covered for defense costs and attorneys' fees associated with claims against you that are covered by your personal umbrella policy but not by your primary policies. These expenses are paid in addition to your policy limit.
- Protection for a covered loss that takes place anywhere in the world.
- You may be protected against claims that may not be covered by your underlying policies for homeowner's, auto liability or watercraft liability.
